

Innovative Agriculture Micro-Grants for Chicago (IAM-Chi)

Project Title:

Applicant Name(s):

Provide applicant details below, including name, affiliations, contact information, and email address.

Applicant 1

Applicant 2

Applicant 3

Applicant 4

Signature:

Signature of beneficiary who will receive funds and be legally responsible for expenditures.

Project Abstract: 200 words or less

Project Narrative *See Request for Proposal for requirements.

Project Narrative content does not auto-flow from previous page; enter each page text separately.*

Project Narrative content does not auto-flow from previous page; enter each page text separately.*

Budget Justification

Please be judicious so that as many meritorious IAM-Chi micro-grants as possible may be funded.

RFP Details: go.illinois.edu/lamChiGrant

Submit Application to: jschaff@illinois.edu

Illinois Extension
UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS URBANA-CHAMPAIGN

extension.illinois.edu

USDA is an equal opportunity provider, employer, and lender.

College of Agricultural, Consumer and Environmental Sciences. University of Illinois, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Local Extension Councils Cooperating. University of Illinois Extension provides equal opportunities in programs and employment. ©2025 University of Illinois Board of Trustees. For permission to reprint, revise, or otherwise use, contact extension@illinois.edu.