2021 Clay County 4-H Year End Awards Form

4-H Alumni of the Year Award

Nominate a 4-H alumnus who contributes to society, exemplifies effective leadership with youth and throughout the community, portray loyal citizenship, is successful in their life sustains a strong, dedicated interest in the local 4-H programs. The nominee does not have to be an alumnus of the Clay County nor Illinois 4-H programs. Please list their name, affiliation with 4-H and a brief description of why you feel they should be recognized. with 4-H and a brief description of why you reef they should be recognized.

A-H Volunteer(s) of the Year This award is presented to that very special person or group of people that dedicated vast amounts of their own personal time, skills, and resources to improve and develop the Clay County 4-H youth programs. This person goes above and beyond the call of duty whenever 4-H is concerned. Please list the nominees' name and a brief description of their volunteer activities during the past 4-H year.

4-H Business of the Year

Throughout the year, there are several of the local and area businesses that excel in lending a helping hand to the Clay County 4-H Programs. The 4-H programs could not be as successful without continued support of these wonderful organizations. Please list the name of the nominated business and a brief description of their support to the Clay County 4-H youth programs!