4-H Fairs During COVID

Thank you so much for your continued support these past years as we have made the necessary changes to protect the health of our 4-H community. We are excited to see you all this summer at our 4-H shows and preparing our show book is just one sign that these shows will be here soon. However, as we release our show books with plenty of time to allow you to plan, details are subject to change as the circumstances of the COVID pandemic shift.

Any changes in policies or schedule will be communicated via social media and to the email listed in 4-H Online prior to the 4-H shows. In addition, the most updated version of the 4-H show book can always be found on extension.illinois.edu/hkmw/4-h-warren-county under the “fairs and shows” tab.

We know this has been a year of making painful sacrifices to help stop the spread of a global pandemic, and we are humbled by the care you have taken to keep each other safe. We will keep aligning with CDC, IDPH, and campus guidelines and will update you on any changes.

We are looking forward to seeing you this summer at 4-H events!

4-H CODE OF CONDUCT AND CONSEQUENCES

The opportunity to participate in or attend 4-H activities is a privilege and not a right. All 4-H participants – youth, families, volunteers, and Extension staff – who participate in or attend any activity or event sponsored by the University of Illinois Extension, 4-H Youth Development Program are expected to uphold the values of the Illinois 4-H program and conduct themselves according to the following standards. These standards also apply to online 4-H activity, including social media and internet presence.

1. Create a Welcoming Environment for All. Encourage everyone to fully participate in 4-H. Recognize that all people have skills and talents that can help others and improve the community. Though we will not always agree, we must disagree respectfully. When we disagree, try to understand why. Our first priority is to create a safe, inclusive space for learning, sharing, and collaboration that is welcoming to people from diverse backgrounds, cultures, and perspectives. Diversity includes, but is not limited to: race, color, religion, political beliefs, national or ethnic origin, immigration or citizenship status, sex, gender identity and expression, transgender status, sexual orientation, age, marital or family status, educational level, learning style, pregnancy, physical appearance, body size, and individuals with disabilities.

2. Bring Your Best Self. Conduct yourself in a manner that reflects honesty, integrity, self-control, and self-direction. Accept the results and outcomes of 4-H contests with grace and empathy for other participants. Accept the final opinions of judges and evaluators. Be open to new ideas, suggestions, and opinions of others.

3. Obey the Law. Commit no illegal acts. Do not possess, offer to others, or use alcohol, illegal drugs, or tobacco products, which include e-pens, e-pipes, e-hookah, e-cigars, JUULs, vapes, vape pens, or other electronic nicotine delivery systems. Do not possess or use weapons or firearms except as expressly permitted as part of supervised 4-H shooting sports programming. Do not attend 4-H activities under the influence of alcohol or illegal substances.

4. Honor Diversity – Yours and Others’ Respect and uphold the rights and dignity of all persons who participate in 4-H programs.

5. Create a Safe Environment. Do not carelessly or intentionally harm or intimidate anyone in any way (verbally, mentally, physically, or emotionally). Do not engage in romantic displays or sexual activities in either public or private situations. Be kind and compassionate toward others. Do not insult, harass, bully others or engage in other hostile behaviors. Be considerate and courteous of all persons and their property.

6. Be a Team Player. Work cooperatively with all individuals involved in 4-H programs and activities. Be responsive to the reasonable requests of the person in charge. Respect the integrity of the group and the group’s decisions.

7. Humane Treatment of Animals. Treat animals humanely and teach 4-H youth to provide appropriate animal care.

8. Participate Fully. Participate in and contribute to planned programs, be on time and follow through on assigned tasks/responsibilities in a manner that fosters the safety, well-being, and quality of the educational experience for self and others. Have fun!

9. Watch What You Wear. Use good judgment. Wear clothing suited for the activity in which you will participate. Dress in a manner that is respectful to yourself and others. Clothing that displays or promotes violence, obscenity, illegal activities, discrimination, or intimidation is prohibited. Do not wear revealing clothing, such as short skirts or shorts, midriff-baring tops, or anything showing undergarments.

10. Be a Positive Role Model. Act in a mature, responsible manner, recognizing you are role models for others and that you are representing both yourself and the University of Illinois Extension 4-H Youth Development Program. Be responsible for your behavior, use positive and affirming language, and uphold exemplary standards of conduct at all 4-H activities.

BEHAVIORS THAT MAY RESULT IN REMOVAL FROM ACTIVITY

CONFERENCE JUDGING

Blue - Meets the standards Red - Needs improvement
White - Needs much improvement

It's scary to have a judge grade something you've made. You may be afraid the judges will be looking for mistakes, that they will laugh at you or not believe you. These ideas are not true.

4-H judges grade your project against what a "perfect" exhibit should look like. If your exhibit has the same quality as that one, it gets a Blue Ribbon. If it needs some improvement to obtain the same quality, the project scores a red rating and gets a Red Ribbon. If it needs much improvement to meet the same quality, the project scores a white rating and gets a White Ribbon.

The judges are not grading YOU. It is the exhibit that gets the blue, red, or white rating and ribbon. You are not a "white ribbon kid" just because your exhibit gets a white rating.

To help the judges grade the exhibit fairly, you will answer questions about the exhibit as it is judged. This is called conference judging. It is important to communicate exactly how you made the exhibit to the judges. Some questions you may be asked are:

- What steps did you follow to make the exhibit?
- What tools did you use?
- What ingredients did you use?
- Did you get help from anyone? (It's OK if you did. Lots of times we need an adult to help us with the hard or dangerous parts.)
- What did you learn from the project?
- What might you do next year to improve in this project?

Even though this public presentation is only with one or two judges and their helpers, think of it as a speech. Speak clearly and plainly so that the judges can hear you. RELAX. The judges will not try to trick you. The questions help the judges to understand how much you know about the project and what you have learned from the project. State your answers directly and tell them all that you can to answer the question. Don't be afraid to say, "I don't know." It is important, as with any form of communication, to be HONEST.

COUNTY 4-H FAIR PREMIUM INFORMATION

1. Premiums will be distributed when the unit receives the monies from the Agriculture Premium Fund. Total premium money available is determined and allocated by the Illinois Department of Agriculture.
2. All 4-H exhibits entered, according to class requirements and adhering to the 4-H Show Information and Rules, will be judged and premium money will be divided according to an X factor, proportionately, on a Blue, Red, or White basis.
3. The Department of Agriculture shall use its best efforts to secure sufficient appropriations to fund premiums. In any year for which the General Assembly of the State of Illinois fails to make an appropriation sufficient to pay such premiums, premium amounts may not be accurately reflected in this Fair Book.
4. Agricultural Premium Fund (APF): Under the Illinois Agricultural Fair Act, SUBPART C, known as the 4-H Fund, University of Illinois Extension units are eligible to participate and receive funding for one (1) cash premium per class. Premium-eligible youth are 4-H members 8-18 years of age as of September 1, 2021 and are enrolled in the 4-H Online system. Cloverbud projects are not premium-eligible due to the age of members. Counties are not required to pay premiums until the funds are released from the IL General Assembly.
5. Tax Implications for Prizes, Gifts, or Awards: Program Participants (including minors) will be required to provide their social security number or foreign national tax ID number prior to receiving a prize, gift, or award to ensure proper IRS reporting as required by law. This sensitive information is kept confidential and handled through security-protected software (PEAR). Participants will not be eligible for prizes, gifts, or awards if social security or foreign national tax ID information is not provided.

How to Make a Poster or Display

1. Have one idea or theme in mind for the display or poster.
2. Use pictures or artwork that add to the theme.
3. Keep it simple but provide enough information to make the theme clear to people.
4. Do not crowd too many words or pictures on the poster.
5. Print neatly and use large letters, stencils, or print from a computer.
6. Use dark ink/lettering on a light poster board or light lettering on a dark poster board.
7. You may use different colors of ink to add interest but too many colors give a cluttered look.
8. Read EACH class description carefully for maximum size limits for exhibits. Some classes have a size limitation and others do not. Choose a display size that is most appropriate for the exhibit you are bringing. Larger does not always mean better; use good judgment in creating your exhibit.
9. If additional items are included with the display that are not attached, label each item with your name so they do not get separated or misplaced during the fair.
10. A display may include one or more posters standing separately or hinged together. The diagrams below show three different patterns as viewed from the top.

VISUAL ARTS

Exhibitors must be enrolled in the Visual Arts project category in which they are exhibiting. Exhibitors are encouraged to date the project when it is made. All visual arts exhibits are evaluated using a visual arts rubric which takes into account correct use of design elements; craftsmanship; and creativity.

Articles exhibited must be an original design created by the exhibitor (except in heritage arts which may follow a pattern AND Fiber-Non Original Ages 8-10 ONLY). Copyrighted or trademarked designs are not acceptable; this includes Team or School logos. Kits and preformed molds are not considered original and are not acceptable in any Visual Arts Class. Combining parts of different patterns (pictures, photographs, images from the internet or a magazine) with the member's own ideas can result in an original design, but simply changing the color, pattern and/or size of a pattern does NOT make the design original. This also applies for ideas found on a site such as Pinterest. If you see something on Pinterest that you like, create something different using the concept, however, it MUST NOT look exactly like something the judge can search for and find on the internet. The exhibit must combine parts of different patterns and/or ideas with the concepts of the member, however changing the color or changing the size of the item or pattern used does NOT make it original. If you create a replica of what you see somewhere else, it is not your original design. If a photo, sketch, or other idea source was used, submit it with your entry, firmly attached to your exhibit. Be prepared to explain how and where you got the idea for this project.

Quilts entered in Visual Arts should ONLY be entered in the Quilting Project area. Either You Can Quilt 50331A or Quilting the Best Better 50331B. All work on the quilt MUST be completed by the 4-H member. You cannot exhibit a quilt that was quilted by someone else.

Care of Animals

The Warren County 4-H Program enforces the Illinois Humane Care of Animals Act. Exhibitors are responsible for providing care/safety measures that protect the animals, exhibitors, and the public. Management practices should include:

- Provide fresh, clean water to all animals at all times.
- Keep your pens clean and dry with good bedding at all times.
- Be aware of animal comfort zones (i.e. temperatures, space).
- Sort and load animals safely and with concern for them.
- Train animals to lead or be handled at a young age before the fair. This will make them more manageable at the fair.
- Arrange for veterinary care in case of an animal emergency.
- Handle animals in a humane way.
- Adhere to all antibiotic, drug, and water or feed additive withdrawal times.
- Animals should be fed on a routine basis.
- Avoid stressing the animals.
- Keep animals clean. A clean animal is viewed as a healthy animal.

- Use show sticks, whips, or canes for showing only. Use them as gently as possible. Do not use electric prods.
- Review your 4-H project manual and follow the care recommendations.
- Have a plan of action if a problem should arise and know whom to contact to help solve it or answer questions.

FDA Antibiotic Rules Apply to Youth Livestock Exhibitors

For 4-H youth livestock exhibitors, parents, and project advisors, Jan. 1, 2017, ushered in major changes in accessing medicated feeds for project animals. That's when the U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA) implemented new rules, known as Guidance 209, for antibiotic use in all animals raised for food.

Antibiotics identified as medically important (to human health) will no longer be available for growth promotion purposes, including for 4-H show animals.

The use and distribution of antibiotics in animal agriculture are changing and producers of all sizes need to begin preparing to adapt in the coming year. Focusing on the one-health concept of combating antibiotic resistance, the United States Food and Drug Administration (FDA) is working to ensure the judicious use of humanly medically important antibiotics. Changes include eliminating the growth promotion use of human medically important antibiotics and expanding the list of feed-grade antibiotics classified as Veterinary Feed Directive (VFD) drugs. Historically, a majority of feed-grade antibiotics used in or on animal feeds have been available to producers over-the-counter, without approval from a veterinarian. As of Jan. 1, 2017, the FDA moved all human medically important feed-grade antibiotics to the VFD drug process.

What does this mean for 4-H Youth exhibiting livestock?

Youth exhibitors and their families must work with a licensed veterinarian with whom they have an established veterinarian-client-patient relationship (VCPR) in order to receive permission to order and use feed containing a VFD drug. The veterinarian's primary role is to advise and guide the producer (the client) in determining which medications are appropriate for their animals (the patients). This relationship must be established and recognized by the veterinarian prior to any VFD order being written. Feed distributors will require a valid VFD, provided by the veterinarian, prior to supplying customers with the regulated feed product. VFDs will need to be renewed every 6 months, based on renewal guidelines set by FDA.

Over-the-counter sales of medically important antibiotics administered in feed and water will end on January 1, 2017. Access to feed-grade antibiotics will require a veterinary feed directive (VFD) for a specific group of animals for a specific timeline as established by the herd veterinarian. Water medications will require a prescription.

Plan now for changes in feed purchases

4-H livestock exhibitors often have just a few animals and buy bagged feed from the local feed or farm supply store. With FDA's new rules, these stores may no longer carry feed that exhibitors are used to buying. Exhibitors will need to contact a veterinarian if they don't already have one and get a comprehensive health plan in place. This will include which antibiotics are needed to maintain good health along with other animal husbandry tools, such as biosecurity and vaccinations.

New record-keeping rules introduced

FDA's new rules ushered in new record-keeping requirements for producers, including youth with 4-H livestock projects. Veterinarians who issue VFDs will need to keep the original form for two years.
