Dear 4-H Family:

Welcome to 4-H! When you enroll in 4-H, you are joining more than a program!

You are joining a community – one that connects you to youth across Illinois, across the country and across the world. We have more than 80 different project areas to explore and a wide range of experiences to choose from. Our goal is to help you design your own learning experience – as you make choices about the things you want to learn, how you want to engage with others, and which experiences you want to participate in. 4-H mentors and leaders are here to encourage and support you on your personal journey of self-discovery. The experiences you choose over time represent your customized “4-H pathway”.

This Clark County 4-H Handbook has been provided for your family to help navigate our 4-H program. This handbook will help meet all of your needs and to help better understand 4-H and learn the requirements for each of your 4-H projects. You can find the Clark County Handbook online at the Clark, Crawford, and Edgar Extension website: extension.illinois.edu/cce. Project criteria can change from year to year, it is your family's responsibility to check out the website or your handbook for those changes and updates. Also, be aware all guidelines, policies, resources, and important information are located at the very end of the document.

Stay up to date on current events in 4-H by checking your email each Friday for the Clark County Extension weekly eBlast. If you are not receiving those emails, call the Clark County Extension Office at 217-826-5422.

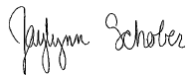

All persons, regardless of race, color, religion, national origin, ancestry, marital status, familial status, sexual orientation, or disability may participate in 4-H programs. Youth who are eight years of age or in the third grade and have not yet reached their nineteenth birthday on or before September 1 of the current 4-H year may enroll in 4-H Clubs. Youth who are ages 5 – 7 as of September 1 of the current 4-H year may join Cloverbuds, a program designed to let youth work as a group on projects perfect for their age.

We are sure you will find 4-H a very rewarding experience. It is important to remember that you gain out of 4-H what you put into it. We encourage each of you to increase your knowledge and gain skills as we together follow the 4-H motto, “To Make the Best Better”!

Our mission statement: “4-H is building a generation of empowered, skilled, and confident young leaders by working in partnerships with caring adults”.

2. Any person, regardless of race, color, religion, gender, national origin, ancestry, marital status, familial status, sexual orientation, or disability may participate in 4-H programs. Youth should be enrolled in 4-H in the county sponsoring the 4-H club/group, even though they may live outside the county. It is preferred that youth enroll in 4-H in their county of residence but if they join a club in another county, they must have prior approval from staff in the county that sponsors the club to join.
5. 4-H membership may not be terminated during the 4-H year without that member's knowledge and due process. Youth must attend at least one meeting or activity and be enrolled in a project to be called a 4-H member.

- Cloverbuds will be encouraged to exhibit one project at the county 4-H show from a specified list of Cloverbud projects. Cloverbud clubs may complete this as a club activity. ROBOTICS

Each county may submit 3 entries total from 50285, 50286, 50288, 50289, 50292.

NOTE: If applicable for their class and display, exhibitors must bring their own computers for demonstration purposes; computers will not be provided. Internet access will not be available.

- Exhibits in classes 50284, 50285, or 50286 are designed to be used with LEGO Mindstorms (NXT, EV3, Lego Inventor, Lego Prime).
- Any other programmable robot kit such as Arduino or Raspberry Pi, should be exhibited in Robotics Innovation/Open Source Class (50292).
- Members should bring their robot to the state fair.

Robotics 1: Beginning: (not eligible for state fair)

Exhibitors should complete Activities 1-6 in the Robotics 1 with EV3 project book. Exhibitors will design, build and program a robot that can autonomously follow a predetermined path that changes direction at least 4 times during a single run. They will bring their project book, their program code (on laptop or on paper), and a single page write up to share what they learned about the engineering design process and programming.

Robotics 1: Intermediate: (SF 50285)

Exhibitors will design, build and program a robot that uses at least one sensor to autonomously follow a path, respond to and/or avoid obstacles. The robot must be autonomous and cannot be controlled remotely. Exhibitors in this class must use at least one sensor in their robot design. Exhibiting youth must complete and display a build log which contains a diagram (drawing or 3D rendering) of their robot with each of the key components labeled, an explanation of why they made the design/programing decisions they made, and a short journal sharing what they learned about the engineering design process and programming throughout their work in the project (as well as while preparing the exhibit). In addition, each youth must bring their program code (on laptop or on paper), and their robot to demonstrate. The robot and obstacles must be able to fit on a 4' x 8' robotics table when being judged, and a 2' x 2' area when being displayed.

Robotics 2 (SF 50286)

Exhibitors will design, build and program a robot that uses sensors and programming to complete one of the challenges selected challenges from the 2023 4-H State Robotics Challenge. The robot must be autonomous and cannot be controlled remotely. Eligible challenges will be marked in the Challenge Documents and on the Illinois 4-H Robotics website (<https://4h.extension.illinois.edu/programs/stem-and-robotics/robotics>). Exhibiting youth must complete and display a build log which contains a diagram (drawing or 3D rendering) of their robot with each of the key components labeled, an explanation of why they made the design/programing decisions they made, and a short journal sharing what they learned about the engineering design process and programming throughout their work in the project (as well as while preparing the exhibit). In addition, each youth must bring their program code (on laptop or on paper), and their robot to demonstrate. The robot and obstacles must be able to fit on a 4' x 8' robotics table when being judged, and a 2' x 2' area when being displayed.

Robotics Innovation Open Source Class (SF 50292)

Open to youth enrolled in Robotics 3, but may also include youth in Robotics 1 or 2 if the exhibits meets the guidelines.

Exhibit an original robot, either homemade or a kit that does not fall under Robotics 1 or 2 that can complete a task using MULTIPLE sensors. The robot must be autonomous and cannot be controlled remotely. If a robot kit is used, then some parts of the robot must be built using other components such as wood, plastic or metal. The robot can include any types of motors, pneumatics or sensors. The Innovation class can also be used for LEGO Mindstorms/ Spike Prime, etc. or Vex kits where the exhibit does not fall under Robotics 1 or 2 exhibit option. Autonomous control of the robot may also be achieved using an “open source” platform such as Arduino or Raspberry Pi and can be programed using a coding language that is publicly available. Exhibitors in Robotics Innovation/Open-Source class must complete and display a build log which contains a diagram (drawing or 3D rendering) of their robot with each of the key components labeled, an explanation of why they made the design/programing decisions they made, and a short journal sharing what they learned about the engineering design process and programming throughout their work in the project (as well as while preparing the exhibit). In addition, each youth must bring their program code (on laptop or on paper), and their robot to demonstrate. Exhibits in this class must be able to fit on no more than a 6’ x 2’ table (or ground footprint), and must be fully assembled 15 minutes prior to the judging start time. No Exceptions.

JUNK DRAWER ROBOTICS

All exhibits should be original designs made with everyday objects and materials. Exhibits with purchased kits will not be accepted. Exhibitors are also required to bring their Junk Drawer Robotics Youth Robotics Notebook with the sections completed for the project they are exhibiting, including the sections leading up to the activity they are exhibiting. For example, if a youth is bringing Activity E from Junk Drawer Level 1, they should have robotics notebook sections A-E completed.

Junk Drawer Robotics 1 (not eligible for state fair)

Copyrighted or trademarked designs are not acceptable; this includes team, school logos and/or characters from movies such as Mickey Mouse, Iron Man, etc. Kits and preformed molds are not considered original and are not acceptable in any Visual Arts Class. Combining parts of different patterns (pictures, photographs, images from the internet or a magazine) with the member's own ideas can result in an original design, but simply changing the color, pattern and/or size of a pattern does NOT make the design original. This also applies for ideas found on a site such as Pinterest. If you see something on Pinterest that you like, use the concept and create something different using the concept; however, it MUST NOT BE AN EXACT REPLICA OF something the judge can search for and find on Pinterest. The exhibit may combine parts of different patterns and/or ideas with the concepts of the member, however changing the color or changing the size of the item or pattern used does NOT make it original. If you create an exact replica of what you see somewhere else, it is not your original design. If a photo, sketch, or other idea source was used, submit it with your entry, firmly attached to your exhibit. Be prepared to explain how and where you got the idea for this project.

Quilts entered in Visual Arts should ONLY be entered in the Quilting Project area in either Level 1 You Can Quilt (SF 50331A) OR Level 2 Quilting the Best Better (SF 50331B). - Take hats off while showing projects
- Have hair combed
- Wear appropriate closed-toed shoes or boots in the show ring (no sandals or flip-flops)
- Wear jeans or khakis

- Try to look our best, learn all that you can, and have fun when showing your projects.

GENERAL PROJECT GUIDELINES

- The 4-H member exhibiting a project must be at least 8 years old and not have reached their 19th birthday as of September 1 in the current 4-H year.
- All exhibits must be products of the current 4-H year. The same product or speech that is selected at the county level must be the one exhibited at the State Fair (except for Food & Nutrition (must be the same recipe), Crops, Floriculture, and Vegetable Gardening exhibits (must be the same specie/type). Modifications can be made to the original county exhibit to meet State Fair class requirements or to incorporate suggested improvements made by the local judge.
- You may find the following web site helpful while working on projects for the fair - <http://web.extension.illinois.edu/state4h/projects/>.
- 4-H'ers not able to be present to exhibit their project at the 4-H shows will need to complete a 4-H Show Excused Absence Form. The exhibit must be shown by another Clark County 4-H'er. Forms are available on the Clark County 4-H website. <http://web.extension.illinois.edu/cce/>.
- Completed project books are not required unless otherwise noted.
- Some exhibit areas may have size limitations. Read the descriptions carefully. Please choose a display size which is most appropriate for the exhibit you are bringing.
- Exhibits illustrating inappropriate subject matter and/or graphics are not acceptable. The Superintendents reserve the right to remove exhibits deemed inappropriate or dangerous for youth audiences.
- Extension staff reserves the right to adjust fair awards based upon the current year's project enrollment and fair registrations.
- Projects are evaluated, not members. All completed projects meeting show requirements will receive a Blue, Red or White rating. Projects are evaluated independently, not compared.
- Projects offered only at the county level will not receive premiums. (Classes are noted in show book)
- If a monetary award amount meets the IRS reporting requirements, program participants (including minors) will be required to provide their social security number or foreign national tax ID number prior to receiving the prize, gift or award to ensure proper IRS reporting as required by law. This sensitive information is kept confidential and handled through security-protected software (PEAR). Participants will not be eligible for prizes, gifts, or awards if social security number or foreign national tax ID number is not provided.

Judging - Exhibits are evaluated independently, not compared to other projects. The standards are appropriate to different age levels and number of years a 4-H'er has been enrolled in a project.

Conference Judging - Projects at the county level are judged using conference judging. During the judging process, the judge will ask the individual 4-H'er pertinent questions about his/her project. 4-H'ers should be knowledgeable about the project, be prepared to talk about goals and objectives, and be able to describe the process used to produce the exhibit.

Judging is a learning experience from which you can learn what you did well and how you can improve in the future. An exhibit does not measure all that you have learned, but it is an example of what you have done. Remember to listen carefully to the judge so that you can accept constructive criticism and learn from it. Remember that judge's comments can be helpful, but they are only one person's evaluation. See the "Project Guidelines" section for more information on Conference Judging.

4-H LIVESTOCK AUCTION GUIDELINES

Clark County 4-H Foundation organizes and operates the Livestock and Food Auctions at the Clark County 4-H Shows. The rules and regulations set forth below are determined by the members of the 4-H Foundation.

- 4-H'ers may sell only one species of market animal (lamb, pig, steer, rabbit, goat or poultry)
- The 4-H Livestock Auction will be held on Wednesday, July 26, 2023, @ 6:30 pm at the Martinsville Fairgrounds.
- Sell order is by random drawing at the Livestock superintendent's meeting prior to the 4-H Shows.
- 4-H members must identify the animal to be auctioned at the check-in prior to their 4-H Show.
- Animals must be shown in the 4-H show, in a market class, to be sold at the auction.
- The buyer has the FIRST right to keep the animal if he/she so desires unless the exhibitor has reserved the right to show the animal at the Illinois State Fair and entries have previously been made. Exhibitors must give up the animal if it is sold at the auction. If the exhibitor wants to keep the animal, then it would be best not to sell at the auction.
- If an animal is sold at the auction and taken home without permission by the buyer, the 4-H'er will forfeit their opportunity to sell in any future 4-H Livestock auctions.
- A 4-H member may only sell one animal regardless of the species. 4-H'ers may choose to participate in the livestock auction or the food auction, but not both.
- Any 4-H'er selling an animal at the auction must be present at the auction (unless attending another 4-H event or absent due to military service) and to load out animals following the auction. No animals may leave the auction except State Fair animals unless checked out with the permission of the superintendent or sale committee.
- All species going to the State Fair must be made known on the Auction Bill.
- A percentage of the profits can be retained from each seller to go to the Clark County 4-H Foundation. Completion Members will receive 100% of their selling price unless they plan to show the animal at the Illinois State Fair.

4-H FOOD AUCTION GUIDELINES

- The Clark County 4-H Foods Show will be held on Monday, July 24 at the Martinsville Fairgrounds. The 4-H Foods Auction will be held the same evening at 6:30 pm. All food products will be sold at the Foods Auction unless specified in the Foods and Nutrition section of this handbook.
- All food should be brought during judging of the food show, Monday, July 24th.
- 4-H'ers may choose to sell one food and nutrition project to receive at least 50% of the selling price. The Clark County 4-H Foundation will receive the remainder of the auction proceeds. 4-H'ers may choose to participate in the Foods Auction or the Livestock Auction, but not both events.
- Completion members (those who are aging out of 4-H) selling a food item will receive 100% of their selling price.
- The Clark County 4-H Foods Auction is sponsored by the Clark County 4-H Foundation.
- 4-H'ers must present their item at the auction in order to receive payment. If a member fails to present the item or if the 4-H'er exhibits more than one project, the Clark County 4-H Foundation receives 100% of the proceeds.
- Auction sale numbers will be randomly assigned prior to the auction.
- 4-H'ers are welcome to make their item attractive. All food should be exhibited on a disposable container, paper plate, or covered cardboard (exception – food preservation).

Questions or concerns about either the Livestock or Food Auction should be addressed to a 4-H Foundation member.

4-H MARKETPLACE

4-H Marketplace is an opportunity to be an entrepreneur and market your talent. The 4-H Marketplace will be held Monday evening of the 4-H Show during the 4-H Fashion Review and Food Auction.

Any 4-H'er may participate free of charge. Members can sell or take orders for any items they have made or grown (no food items, please). The item does not have to be a current 4-H project; however, 4-H'ers may display their 4-H project from the exhibit hall if they wish to sell or take orders for the items to be made.

4-H'ers are responsible for providing their own table, signs, and any supplies they need for their stand. Stands will be set up in a designated area by the Arts Hall.

4-Hers can be set up any time after 5:30 pm and all booths should be set up for sales from 6:30-7:30 PM. (If 4-H'er is participating in the fashion review or foods auction, they may have someone else man their stand during that time)

Members are encouraged to be creating in their marketing (signs, business cards, display etc.)
