

Woodford County 4-H

Recognition for Excellence

Guidelines for Applying for Awards

Revised 2023

University of Illinois • U.S. Department of Agriculture • Local Extension Councils Cooperating
University of Illinois Extension provides equal opportunities in programs and employment.

Record Book Award

Record Book Awards will be given to members who turn in COMPLETED record books. Awards will be given by 4-H Age for members 8-18.

Record book must meet the following criteria.

- Include Project Plans for each area.
- Include the My 4-H Activities Sheet
- Be arranged in a neat and organized manner.

Outstanding First Year Member Awards

Background

- To encourage first year 4-H members to complete project plans and project reports and keep track of 4-H involvement.

- Criteria

- Must be first year 4-H member.

Application Procedure

- Information Cover Sheet
- Complete First Year Member Award Application (Next Page)
- Do not include additional pictures, newspaper clippings, project outlines, etc.
- Neatness, grammar, and spelling will be considered.

I Dare You Award

Background

- Mr. William H. Danforth, founder of the American Youth Foundation, was a successful businessman who lived 85 full years practicing his philosophy of Stand Tall, Think Tall, Smile Tall and Live Tall each day. He challenges young people to achieve their highest potential and to influence others through their lives of leadership and service. In his book, Mr. Danforth encourages the owner to pass the book along to ten friends after they have read it to encourage them also to reach their highest potential.

Criteria

- 4-H member should demonstrate evidence of outstanding leadership, scholarship, athletics and religious service
- Must be a high school Junior or Senior
- Members may receive this award only once in their 4-H career.
- Up to 2 awards may be presented each year.

Application Procedure

- To apply for the I Dare You Award, submit the following to the Extension office by October 2 by 4:30p.m.
- Information Cover Sheet
- Nomination from a 4-H Leader.

Bronze, Silver, Gold, Diamond, Emerald Experience Award

Open to all 4-H youth ages 8-18. Must follow the State 4-H instructions and application (found on our website) and submit to the Livingston Extension Office by 4:30p.m. on October 2, 2023.

County Treasurer Award

Background

- The office of Treasurer carries the responsibility of accurate handling and accounting of the funds of the 4-H club. The top club treasurer is recognized each year at the county level.

Criteria

- Selection of the top treasurer for the year is based on the completeness and accuracy of the record, neatness, number of transactions and having all required signatures. Don't forget to complete the 4-H Club Inventory in the Treasurer's Book. Include items such as flags, gavel, etc.
- Treasurer books must be audited and signed by a member of the club other than the Treasurer, a parent, and a leader.

Application Procedure

- To apply for the Treasurer of the Year Award, submit the following to the Extension office by the October 2 4:30 p.m. deadline.
- 4-H Treasurer's book
- Neatness, grammar and spelling will be considered.

County Secretary Award

Background

- The responsibility of the office of Secretary requires accurate recording of the minutes of the club meeting and attendance. It may also include recording member participation and business correspondence. The top club secretary is recognized each year at the county level.

Criteria

- Selection is based on completeness of the book including member attendance, officers, committees, and minutes of all meetings.

Application Procedure

- To apply for the Secretary of the Year Award, the following items need to be submitted to the Extension office by the October 2 4:30 p.m. deadline.
- 4-H Secretary's book
- Neatness, grammar, and spelling will be considered.

County Reporter Award

Background

The duties of club reporter including writing interesting and accurate reports of the club meetings and special club activities and sending them to the local newspaper. This helps to keep the local community informed of 4-H activities. The top club reporter is recognized each year at the county level.

Criteria

- Selection is based on number and quality of news articles submitted to the local paper.
- Number and quality of the Meeting Reports that are returned to the Extension office in a timely manner.

Application Procedure

- To apply for the County Reporter Award, the following items need to be submitted to the Extension office by the October 2 4:30 p.m. deadline.
- Submit a notebook or scrapbook containing activities and information on the club's 4-H activities for the year.
- Neatness and completeness are considered.

County Historian Award

Background

The duties of club historian include collecting and recording club activities and achievements in a scrapbook. This helps to keep the club's history recorded for future members and to keep them informed of past 4-H activities. The top club historian is recognized each year at the county level.

Criteria

- Selection is based on number and quality of articles selected for inclusion in the book

Application Procedure

- To apply for the County Historian Award, the following items need to be submitted to the Extension office by the October 2 4:30 p.m. deadline.
- Submit a notebook or scrapbook containing activities and information on the club's 4-H activities for the year.
- Neatness and completeness are considered.

Club of the Year Award

For the 2022-2023 4-H year, we are asking club leaders to fill out the State 4-H Club of the year application, which can be found on our website. Turn this completed form into your local Extension Office, or via your club's Box file link by 4:30 p.m. on October 2, 2023.

Club Community Service Award

Background

- Each year, 4-H clubs identify needs within their community and carry out projects that benefit the community and residents within the community. Outstanding clubs are recognized for their efforts in this area.

Criteria

- Clubs must conduct community service projects within their community.
- Awards will be selected based on number/variety of service projects (did service projects fill a need in the community?), percent of club members participating in service projects, neatness and completeness of application.

Application Procedure

- To apply for the Community Service Awards, the following items need to be submitted to the Extension office by the October 2 4:30 p.m. deadline.
- One Community Service Award application should be submitted for the entire club.
- Submit a notebook or outline of community service projects including information on the need in the community, specific information regarding the service project (what was done, who helped, and how it contributed to the community).
- Include any pictures or newspaper articles related to the community service project (although helpful, pictures or articles are not required).

County Project Award Medals & Blue Awards

Background

4-H project and award medals are awarded on the basis of outstanding effort toward accomplishing the objectives of the individual award programs. Members can receive a medal for an award area only once. After receiving a medal, members receive a Blue Award each year they continue to show outstanding effort in that award area. Medal winners are determined based on a cumulative project record in the award area. The number of medals awarded in each area is determined by project enrollment.

Award areas include:

Achievement – Includes all work done in all project areas throughout 4-H career. This should be applied for ONLY if you have been in 4-H for three years. Open to those on the county level 11-18 years of age. Because this application is a fillable PDF document, please contact the office for the application link to be sent. *****

Please apply for the awards below using the following application.

Animal Science – Includes Beef, Cat, Dairy, Dog, Goat, Horse & Pony, Poultry, Rabbit, Sheep, Small Pets, Swine, Veterinary Science, and any related county projects.

Community Involvement & Global Awareness – Includes Intercultural and any related county projects.

Environment & Natural Resources – Includes Natural Resources, Entomology, Forestry, Geology and any related county projects.

Food, Nutrition & Health – Includes all Foods & Nutrition projects, Health and any related county projects.

Home & Family – Includes Child Development, Clothing, Consumer Education, Interior Design and any related county projects.

Engineering & Technology – Includes Aerospace, Bicycle, Computer, Electricity, Robotics, Small Engines, Tractor, Woodworking, and any related county projects.

Personal Development – Includes Communication, Photography, Video/Filmmaking, Visual Arts, Leadership, Theater Arts, and any related county projects.

Plants & Soils – Includes Plant & Soil Science, Crops & Soils, Horticulture, Floriculture, and any related county projects.

Award Criteria

- Must have been enrolled in project area for one year with the exception of the Achievement Award. See above.
- Must be currently enrolled in the project
- Must show continued growth in project area

Application Procedure

- To apply for a county medal or Blue Award, the following items need to be submitted to the Extension office by October 2 by 4:30 p.m.
- Information Cover Sheet
- County Award Application.
- Neatness, grammar, and spelling will be considered.

Elaine Smillie Memorial Home Economics Scholarship

Background

Elaine Smillie served as Unit Leader for U of I Extension – Woodford County for 10 years and a Youth Advisor prior to that time. Elaine excelled in home economics projects as a 4-H member herself. A $100 college scholarship has been established in her honor and will be awarded annually to a 4-H member enrolled in projects included in the Food, Nutrition & Health or Home & Family Curriculum Areas.

Criteria

- Must be enrolled in projects included in the Food, Nutrition & Health, or Home & Family Curriculum Areas
- 4-H member must be accepted or currently enrolled in a college or university when application is made
- May only receive award once.

Application Procedure

To apply for the Elaine Smillie Memorial Home Economics Scholarship, the following items need to be submitted to the Extension office by October 2 at 4:30 p.m.

- Information Cover Sheet
- Completed Record Book including Project Plans and My 4-H Activities Sheet
- Neatness, grammar and spelling will be considered

Al Leman Memorial Leadership Award

Background

The Leadership Award is given for outstanding project work and leadership shown in club, county, multi-county, and state activities and is a $100 check.

Criteria

- 4-H member should exhibit outstanding leadership characteristics
- Preference is given to members completing one of the leadership projects

Application Procedure

To apply for the Al Leman Memorial Leadership Award, the following items need to be submitted to the Extension office by October 2 at 4:30 p.m.

- Information Cover Sheet
- Entire record book including project plans, project records and a record of 4-H activities.
- Neatness, grammar, and spelling will be considered.

Al Lemman Memorial Swine Award

Background

The family of Dr. Allen Lemman has established a memorial to honor the memory of Dr. Lemman who was a former outstanding Woodford County 4-H member. Dr. Lemman was well known for his expertise as a veterinarian and a swine expert. The Swine Record award is given for excellence in swine record keeping and project involvement. The award winner receives a $100 check award.

Criteria

- Must be a swine project member.
- Previous recipients must show significant progress in swine project area.

Application Procedure

To apply for the Al Lemman Memorial Swine Award, the following items need to be submitted to the Extension office by September 15 at 4:30 p.m.

- Information Cover Sheet (see page 31)
- Swine records from all years enrolled in the project.
- Completed Record Book including Project Plans and My 4-H Activities Sheet
- Neatness, grammar and spelling will be considered.

Hartter Memorial Beef Scholarship

Background

The family of Harvey Hartter has established a memorial scholarship to recognize outstanding beef project members. A $200 college scholarship will be awarded annually to a 4-H beef exhibitor.

Criteria

- Must be a beef project member.
- 4-H member must be accepted or currently enrolled in college or university when application is made
- May only receive award once.

Application Procedure

To apply for the Hartter Memorial Beef Scholarship, the following items need to be submitted to the Extension office by October 2 at 4:30 p.m.

- Information Cover Sheet
- Beef records from all years enrolled in the project.
- Completed Record Book including Project Plans and My 4-H Activities Sheet
- Neatness, grammar, and spelling will be considered

J.B. Hunter Scholarship

Background

Evergreen FS, formerly Woodford FS, and the University of Illinois Extension honor the memory of J.B. Hunter, former manager of Woodford County Seed and Service Company, with a memorial scholarship. Up to two recipients each year will receive a certificate entitling them to a $100 scholarship when evidence of enrollment in an accredited college, junior college, or post high school vocational school is given. If this requirement is not met, the scholarship will revert to the third or fourth place nominee during the year in which it was rewarded.

Criteria

- Must be a high school senior.
- Must have received the Illinois 4-H Emerald Experience Award during 4-H career (includes current year)

Application Procedure

To apply for the J.B. Hunter Scholarship Award, the following items need to be submitted to the Extension office by October 2 at 4:30 p.m.

- Information Cover Sheet
- Entire record book including project plans, project records and a record of 4-H activities.
- 4-H story that includes a goal statement of plans, how you plan to use what you gained in 4-H, how 4-H has influenced your goal decisions, and how 4-H has influenced your life
- Neatness, grammar, and spelling will be considered.