4-H Communication: Public Speaking and Horse Speaking Contest

Saturday April 4, 2020

- McHenry County Farm Bureau in the Auditorium
- Sign in begins 9:00am. Presentations begin 9:15am.
- Members must be enrolled in Communications: Public presentation OR Horse projects in 4HOnline
- DEADLINE to register is March 31:
<https://web.extension.illinois.edu/registration/?RegistrationID=21954>

One of the most important skills that 4-H members can learn is to speak in front of a group. In 4-H, members have many opportunities to practice this skill. Besides doing presentations at the club meetings, members have the opportunity to participate in the Public Presentation contest.

This contest is open to all youth interested in presenting in the following categories: formal speech, illustrated speech, oral interpretation, or an original work.

Horse project members are eligible to participate in Horse Speeches for points toward Horse Master.

COMMUNICATIONS: PUBLIC PRESENTATIONS

1. Formal Speeches (4-8 mins) share the presenter's own unique view and are intended to motivate, persuade, or inform an audience and may include a call to action. Youth deliver a speech on any topic they wish (Original Oratory), or choose one of the four topics on which to speak (Topical Response)
2. Illustrated Speeches (4-8 mins) may be used to inform, persuade, or motivate the audience while using a visual aid. Visual aids may be two dimensional, three-dimensional, or digital. Youth may include audience participation.
3. Original works (4-8 mins) must be written entirely by the presenter. It may be presented as an individual or a two-person team entry. Manuscripts must be sent in advance to the contest. Presentations may be designed for TV, radio, or online media and must be presented live.
4. Oral Interpretation (4-8 mins) must be published works, and manuscripts or transcripts must be submitted prior to the event. They may be presented as an individual or a two-person team entry.

HORSE SPEECHES - Horse Project members may earn points towards the 2020 Horse Master Competition

1. Original individual formal speech - Junior 5-10 minutes, Senior 7-10 minutes
2. Original individual presentation: 9-12 mins. either demonstration (step by step process) or illustrated talk on an idea or topic; both use visual aids.
3. Original team presentation: 10-15 mins. either demonstration (step by step process) or illustrated talk on an idea or topic; both using visual aids.
4. Interpretive Reading 3-5 mins is the art of reading aloud from a printed page. The reading must be published works that are horse-related. They may be prose, poetry, short stories, play cuttings, narratives, book or review, or theatrical.

For more information or to REGISTER for the COUNTY Speaking contest please go to the County website or: <https://web.extension.illinois.edu/registration/?RegistrationID=21954>

STATE 4-H HORSE JUDGING CONTEST

February 29 | 11 AM

Black Hawk College | Galva, IL

Registration cards must be signed by Extension staff
In 4-H, learning about horses means much more than learning to ride. The State 4-H Horse Judging Contest will be held Saturday, February 29 at Black Hawk College. Registration begins at 11 AM, with the contest following at noon. Youth will judge six classes of horses, at least two being halter classes. Youth 14 years of age and older may also choose to participate in oral reasons following the classes. For those not participating in the oral reasons class, one question class will be required. Learn more online @ go.illinois.edu/4Hhorsejudging.

Explore a future in agriculture

March 6 | Decatur

Teens can learn about careers in agriculture at the Women Changing the Face of Agriculture Conference March 6 at Richland Community College in Decatur. Applying online @ <https://womenchangingthefaceofagriculture.com/>.

Speaking for Illinois 4-H Spring training

March 21 | Sterling

We're looking for 4-H members interested in spreading the great news about 4-H. 4-H members 14 years of age or older can join the Speaking for Illinois 4-H team. The training is Saturday, March 21 at the Whiteside County Extension Office in Sterling.

The day-long training, provided by the Illinois State 4-H Youth Leadership Team, gives you the chance to explore your own 4-H history and why you are involved, put that story into words, and learn the best ways to approach donors, civic groups, elected officials, and others to talk about 4-H. All of this – and more – is a part of Speaking for Illinois 4-H! Once you're trained, you'll receive an invitation to be a part of our Legislative Connection events at the State Capitol. There is a $12 fee to attend the training to cover the cost of lunch and supplies. Save the date and be ready to sign up when registration opens in mid-January @ go.illinois.edu/sfi4H.
