

Fundraising Resources

Partnerships with Companies

These fundraisers work by partnering with a company and then receiving a percentage of the profit from what is being sold.

- Fundraising Items

- Items can be sold to raise money for clubs. Items can include things like flowers, popcorn, candles, cookie dough, etc. Have an item idea that could work for fundraising? Give it a quick internet search and see what is available.
- The website below is a good resource for item fundraising

Other Ideas

- Flower arrangements
- Succulents and/or small succulent pots; plants
  - Contacting local garden shops for bulk or reduced items for fundraiser or ordering bulk online.
  - Host a small workshop (virtual or in person if allowed by current restrictions) and charge a small fee.
  - Hosting something with low cost materials or materials the participants can easily bring will help boost profits.
- Create art (any medium) and have an auction.
  - This can be virtual or in person if allowed by current restrictions

Have additional ideas to add to the list? Contact Wren Woodburn at woodburn@illinois.edu to add them!

University of Illinois Extension 4-H Fundraising Approval Form

Illinois 4-H clubs/groups should receive advance approval from the University of Illinois Extension Unit staff when planning or conducting a fundraiser. This will ensure that the club/group is operating within the policies and guidelines relating to the use of the 4-H name and emblem and fiscal policies of University of Illinois Extension. All money raised using the 4-H name and emblem must be used for 4-H educational programs and activities unless noted in advance that is money is being raised for another organization/agency. Please complete and return this form to the University of Illinois Extension Office to be approved and placed on file at least two weeks before the 4-H fundraising activity is to be promoted and/or held. If you have a separate budget for this fundraising activity, please attach a copy to this form.
