

4-H Dog Showmanship

Week 3

Review:

1. Stacking
2. Gaiting
3. Equipment
4. Patterns
5. "Take off" check list

Lead held correctly.

Lead held incorrectly.

Lead placed correctly on dog.

Lead place incorrectly on dog.

7 AKC Dog Breed Groups:

1. Sporting
2. Hound
3. Working
4. Terrier
5. Toy
6. Non-sporting
7. Herding

Sporting

Breeds in the sporting group were bred to assist hunters in the capture and retrieval of feathered game.

Hound

Hounds were bred to pursue warm-blooded prey.

Working

Were bred to assist humans in some capacity, including pulling sleds, guarding flocks, homes and families.

Terrier

Were bred to go underground in pursuit of rodents and other vermin.

Toy

Bred to be affectionate companion dogs.

Non-Sporting

Consists of all the dogs that do not share any mutual characteristics, but do not fit into other groups.

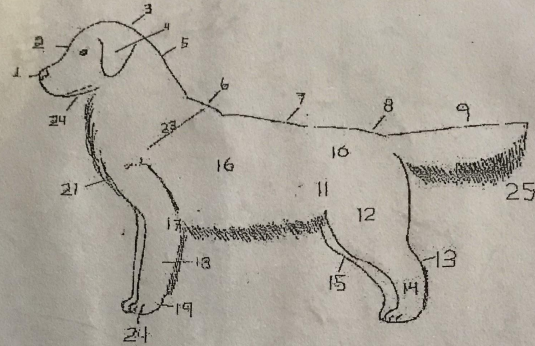

Herding

Bred to move livestock,
while working closely
with their humans.

Dog Anatomy

1 Nose

2 Stop

3 Occiput

4 Ear Flap

5 Crest of Neck

6 Withers

7 Back

8 Crop

9 Tail

10 Loin

11 Flank

12 Thigh

13 Hock

14 Rear Pastern

15 Stifle

16 Ribs

17 Elbow

18 Forearm

19 Front Pastern

20 Pads of Feet

21 Forechest

22 Front of Shoulder

23 Shoulder

24 Flews

25 Feathering

Homework

1. Keep practicing stacking and free baiting
2. Gaiting and patters
3. Research what group your dog is in and breed info
4. Anatomy parts

AKC website is great for information

3cdog.net or cherry brook.com

Questions:

Emily Northup Chrisos emmyn08@hotmail.com

Michele Aavang maavang@illinois.edu