

Source: Kate Harding, 4-H Program Coordinator
217-854-9604 harding@illinois.edu

Release Date: June 8, 2022

2022 4-H Swine Show Results

The 4-H Swine Show was held at the Macoupin County Fairgrounds on Wednesday, June 8. Young pork producers had the opportunity to showcase their hard work with their animals and compete for awards. Members were judged on their showmanship, fitting, and overall care of their animals.

Joe Limbach of Chillicothe, Missouri served as swine show judge and Cindy Stayton of Carlinville served as show superintendent. The following members were given awards for their projects:

Class Champion Feb Gilt

Luke Wolff, Shipman

Reserve Class Champion Feb Gilt

Lane Gowin, Medora

Class Champion Pair of Gilts

Maycee Hampton, Carlinville

Reserve Grand Champion Barrow

Lane Gowin, Medora (Crossbred)

Class Champion Barrows

Sara Wiese, Carlinville (Spot)

Sam Wiese, Carlinville (Duroc)

Ashlyn Killam (Heavyweight-Crossbred)

Reserve Class Champion Barrows

Sara Wiese, Carlinville (Spot)

Lillian Foiles, Plainview (Duroc)

Lane Gowin, Medora (Lightweight-Crossbred)

Taylor Harding, Carlinville (Heavyweight-Crossbred)

Class Champion Pair of Barrows

Sara Wiese, Carlinville

Reserve Class Champion Pair of Barrows

Luke Wolff, Shipman

Junior Showmanship (8-13 years old)

Lane Gowin, Medora

Sr. Showmanship (14 and older)

Sam Wiese, Carlinville

4-H members receiving blue ribbons and class awards for their projects were: Luke Wolff of Shipman; Tucker Ahrling and Lillian Foiles of Plainview; Lane Gowin of Medora; Maycee Hampton, Taylor Harding, Ashlyn Killam, Makenna Harding, Sam Wiese, and Sara Wiese of Carlinville.

The 4-H Program of Macoupin County extends thanks to the Macoupin County Pork Producers, John and Carol Schaefer Family, and Jeff Behme Farms for their sponsorship of the swine show awards.

For more information on the 4-H swine show or any other 4-H activities, please contact the University of Illinois Extension- Macoupin County Office at 217/854-9604.

