

Illinois Extension
UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS URBANA-CHAMPAIGN

Source: Kate Harding, 4-H Program Coordinator
217-854-9604 harding@illinois.edu

Release Date: June 9, 2021

2021 4-H Swine Show Results

The 4-H Swine Show was held at the Macoupin County Fairgrounds on Wednesday, June 9. Young pork producers had the opportunity to showcase their hard work with their animals and compete for awards. Members were judged on their showmanship, fitting, and overall care of their animals.

Brennan Diesen of Highland, Illinois served as swine show judge and Cindy Stayton of Carlinville served as show superintendent. The following members were given awards for their projects:

Grand Champion Gilt

Ian Gwillim, Shipman

Reserve Grand Champion Gilt

Luke Wolff, Shipman

Grand Champion Barrow

Ian Gwillim, Shipman

Reserve Grand Champion Barrow

Luke Wolff, Shipman

Junior Showmanship (8-13 years old)

Ian Gwillim, Shipman

Sr. Showmanship (14 and older)

Emily Barr, Carlinville

4-H members receiving blue ribbons and class awards for their projects were: Ian Gwillim and Luke Wolff of Shipman; Emily Barr, Maycee Hampton, and Sara Wiese of Carlinville.

The 4-H Program of Macoupin County extends thanks to the Macoupin County Pork Producers, John Schaefer Family, Gale Cole Family, and Mennel Milling for their sponsorship of the awards and trophies.

For more information on the 4-H swine show or any other 4-H activities, please contact the University of Illinois Extension- Macoupin County Office at 217/854-9604.