Horse & Dog Ownership/ Lease Forms

4-H members who plan to exhibit dogs or horses at the Effingham County Dog & Horse exhibitions must complete the ownership/lease forms and provide them to the Extension office by May 1. Forms are available at the Extension office or visit https://extension.illinois.edu/sites/default/files/eff_dog_horse_ownership_form_-_effingham_2020.pdf

QUALITY ASSURANCE & ETHICS (QA&E):

The Quality Assurance and Ethics training is required for all youth that enroll in horses, rabbits, poultry, dogs, and cats. Members must take the training whether they own a live animal or not. It is advised that they complete this one time as soon as they are enrolled in the project area. Counties will monitor completion of this. Failure to complete QA&E will result in the member's animal science project enrollment being cancelled and they will be ineligible to exhibit at county fairs. The website is open year round @ <http://web.extension.illinois.edu/qaec/>

NOTE: Youth must be logged on to a computer for this program, either a desktop or laptop; not an iPad or iPhone. The program cannot capture the information for county staff to see when it is completed using iPads or iPhones.

Cancer Doesn't Define Me, and 2020 Won't Define Us

How 4-H Inspires Resilience and Perseverance Through Life's Challenges

I've proudly recited the 4-H pledge since I was 9 years old. But, much of my 4-H experience has been unconventional.

I've attended virtual 4-H meetings before "Zoom" became a household name; completed fair projects from the St. Louis Children's Hospital while waiting for a bone marrow transplant; attended conferences and helped judge fair projects from my hospital room; and wrote legislators regarding important health and agricultural issues while recovering in my bed at home.

For the past five years, I've spent much of my life in and out of hospitals undergoing treatment for stage IV High Risk Neuroblastoma cancer. I'll never forget how difficult that first hospital stay was. Not only was my family still reeling from the cancer diagnosis, but we didn't have any basic supplies for a lengthy hospital stay. Who thinks about toothbrushes when you're just trying to wrap your mind around chemotherapy? Who remembers to pack snacks when confronted with their child's serious illness?

But that experience got me thinking...Other families must be dealing with this, too. Could I make their days and nights a little more comfortable so they can focus on healing...and on just spending precious time with each other?

4-H taught me many things, but most of all it taught me the importance of contributing to my community. It inspires us to be leaders when we're called to serve. And that's what I needed to do. I needed to turn my experience with pediatric cancer into a platform of awareness, advocacy and compassion.

In 2017, I took initiative and formed my platform, "Crowns Fight Cancer," shortly after being crowned Jr. Miss Effingham County Fair Queen. I knew in that moment – when my name echoed over the loudspeaker – that it wasn't about me, but rather every kid stuck in a hospital whose voice couldn't be heard. So, I started advocating for childhood cancer research, awareness, and funding with a passion. I traveled to Washington, D.C. multiple times to speak with congressional leaders, I've been a guest speaker at CureFest, met with the FDA about issues affecting pediatric oncology patients, and was featured in an award-winning docu-series about pediatric cancer.

During Childhood Cancer Awareness Month in September, I'm beyond grateful to have had the opportunity to bless other families going through their own harrowing cancer journeys. I organize supply drives collecting toiletries and snacks to donate to St. Louis and Cardinal Glennon Children's Hospitals and Cincinnati Children's Hospital. Using my 4-H leadership skills, I've partnered with local businesses, civic organizations, 4-H clubs, area schools, and the media to promote this initiative which has – to date – provided families with more than 60,000 essential items. This project is something I am incredibly proud of, and I am excited to see how it will continue to grow.

One thing I love about 4-H is how much it embraces diversity and people of all abilities. There's no one way to be a 4-H'er. With each passing year, I've gained a broader skill set, expanded my knowledge, and increased my beneficial contributions to society. Throughout my battle with cancer, I've felt empowered and supported by my 4-H community which, in turn, has allowed me to empower and support others.

Participating in 4-H truly changed the course of my life and equipped me for the future – inspiring my dream to become a Pediatric Oncology Nurse. The hands-on projects I've participated in helped grow my confidence and develop my independence and strength. As a nurse, I will be able to take what I've learned in 4-H and directly apply it on an oncology floor – enriching the lives I touch and teaching pediatric patients the power of resilience.

Cancer is part of my story, but it doesn't define me. 4-H continues to be the reason for some of my best days, and helps me through some of my most challenging ones. And after a year like 2020, millions of kids need that support, too. This difficult year is always going to be part of our story, but it doesn't have to dictate our future. I believe 4-H is what kids need most right now.

If there's a kid in your life, introduce them to 4-H. It can change the course of their future in remarkable ways.

Tell Your 4-H Story –

Join the Speaking for Illinois 4-H Team

We're looking for 4-H members interested in spreading the great news about 4-H.

4-H members 14 years of age or older can join the Speaking for Illinois 4-H team. There will be a virtual training offered on Saturday, March 6.

This virtual training, provided by the Illinois State 4-H Youth Leadership Team, gives you the chance to explore your own 4-H history and why you are involved, put that story into words, and learn the best ways to approach donors, civic groups, elected officials, and others to talk about 4-H. Learn why 4-H believes in Positive Youth Development and how we emphasize the essential elements of Belonging, Independence, Generosity and Mastery. All of this – and more – is a part of Speaking for Illinois 4-H! Once you're trained, you'll receive an invitation to be a part of our Legislative Connection events.

Registration is open NOW @: <https://4h.extension.illinois.edu/events/speaking-illinois-4-h-training>.

Shooting Sports

Results of the first annual Illinois 4-H Shooting Sports Virtual Shoot are now posted on the Illinois 4-H events website, or click here: <https://go.illinois.edu/4HVirtualShootResults2020>

Over 420 scores were posted and ribbons have been mailed to the top ten winners in shotgun; air rifle; compound archery; and recurve archery. Congratulations to all the participants and especially the 4-H leaders that went to the extra effort to offer this contest to their local shooting sports 4-H clubs! Thank you, volunteers!
