Award List and Descriptions

There are many award areas in which 4-H members and clubs can receive recognition for all their hard work. The following is a list of the different award areas and a description of each.

4-H Member Awards and Recognition

- County 4-H Award Application (8-18 year olds)

The application is available as a PDF or you can fill it out via JOTFORM. This award recognizes 4-H'ers who excel in their 4-H year based on their involvement with projects, programs, other community activities and events, and participation in 4-H events/activities. Youth may apply in more than one area. Each focus area selected requires a separate 4-H story with emphasis on the focus area selected.

- Community Service- Focus of your 4-H work in service to/for others. Work should focus on what you have done as an individual.
- Communications- Focus of your 4-H work in the art of communicating with others, including but not limited to public presentations, 4-H Ambassadors, Speaking for Illinois 4-H, television/radio interviews, etc.
- Leadership- Focus on the development of your leadership skills, including offices held, committees served on, programs led, and public presentations on behalf of 4-H.
- Personal Growth- Focus on your own personal growth through participating in the 4-H program. This could include, but is not limited to growth in skills, demonstrated initiative, self-confidence, interpersonal interactions, poise, etc.
- Project Mastery- Focus on your 4-H work in your primary project (i.e. woodworking, photography, and beef). Only one project should be included in the application and members should not submit an application in more than one "project mastery" area.

- 4-H Club Officer Recognition

President or Vice President- Write an essay about your leadership as the club's president or vice president. Include your involvement in preparing the club agenda, planning programs, assisting members, holding officer meetings, planning club programs, arranging guest speakers, etc. which might give a clue into how you personally led your 4-H club. The top president and vice president will receive a special award.

Secretary- Submit the secretary book and all supplemental material. The secretary's book may be typed instead of handwritten, but all additional sections of the secretary's book must be completed. Books receiving a 90% and above all receive a special award.

Treasurer- Submit the treasurer book, bank statements, and all supplemental material. The audit must be completed and signed. Treasurer books receiving an "excellent" in all criteria will receive a special award.

Reporter: Submit all club reports in a binder or folder. Include actual copies or photocopies of the newspaper stories or press releases that appeared in the newspaper, pictures of members at any 4-H activity or event, copies of any 4-H program or flyer for a club event, and a summary sheet that tells how many stories, articles or press releases you have written during the 4-H year. The top reporter will receive a special award.

Scrapbook- Submit the club scrapbook. Scrapbooks will be judged on the preservation of the 4-H club's memories, interesting and variety of page layouts, chronological or thematic order of pages, neatness, correct spelling, and appropriate journaling on the pages. The top scrapbook will receive a special award.

- I Dare You Award- This county award is leader nominated. This leadership award was first offered in 1941 by businessman and philanthropist, William H. Danforth, who dared young people to achieve their highest potential and to influence others through lives of service. Youth must be at least 14 years old to be nominated. 4-H members are selected for this award only once. 4-H members, who demonstrate personal integrity, lead well rounded lives, and possess a willingness to assume responsibility should be considered for this award. Those nominated for this award should be "emerging" leaders- those youth who have the qualities and the abilities to lead, but who may not yet recognize or act on their leadership potential.
