

STEPS TO EXHIBIT YOUR 4-H HORSE PROJECT VIRTUALLY

A Note about Internet Connectivity:

Higher-speed internet access may be helpful to upload videos in certain parts of Monroe County. If you have bad connectivity or slow internet at home, the following public areas offer WiFi: County Courthouse, Zimmer & Lakeview Parks-Waterloo, Borsch Park-Valmeyer, Bolm-Schuhkraft Park-Columbia, Prairie Du Rocher Park (Main/Henry St.), Ratz Park-Red Bud. Please utilize the following steps to complete your show requirements:

1. Review PAGE 4 of the 2020 Monroe County 4-H Showbook found here: <https://go.illinois.edu/Showbook> for horse class options. You may exhibit in two classes. The following classes are not eligible this year: Barrel Racing and Pole Bending.
2. Please fill out the Exhibit Card: <https://go.illinois.edu/ExhibitCard> and display in video prior to exhibiting.
3. Review the Family Instructions for Enroll in Exhibits document: <https://go.illinois.edu/Instructions to Enroll>. This will take you through the process of registering to exhibit your project online
4. Review the instructions to upload a video: <https://go.illinois.edu/Upload Videos to Box> This document will provide you with instructions on uploading video for exhibiting in the virtual horse show. All Horse Show videos must be uploaded by midnight, July 12 in order to make them accessible to a judge, who will evaluate.
5. All Horse exhibitors MUST have completed the Quality Assurance & Ethics Certification (QAEC): <https://web.extension.illinois.edu/qaec/>
