Volunteer Big Tree Inspectors

Illinois Big Tree Register – Est. 1962

We need your help! The Illinois Big Tree Register needs volunteers to assist with Big Tree champion remeasurements and Big Tree nomination submissions! If you are interested in becoming a Volunteer Big Tree Inspector, please complete the questionnaire below and return it to Justin Vozzo, Coordinator of the Illinois Big Tree Register. All your information will remain confidential (i.e., your contact information will not be made public).

Name:
Street Address:
City, State, Zip:
Phone #'s:
Valid Email:
Additional Information
Are you willing to become a Volunteer Big Tree Inspector? Yes No
Do you require basic training to correctly measure and certify Big Tree nominations: \(\subseteq \text{Yes} \) \(\subseteq \text{No} \)
In which counties do you wish to volunteer your services:
Are you capable of correctly identifying trees by genus and species? Yes No
Do you have the means to take digital photographs of Big Tree nominations/champions? \square Yes \square No
Do you have the means to geo-reference (GPS) Big Tree nominations/champions?
Additional comments, skills, or background:

Return to Chris Evans at:

Illinois Big Tree Register W-521 Turner Hall (MC-047) 1102 S. Goodwin Ave. Urbana, IL 61801

Email: vozzo2@illinois.edu

Natural Resources & Environmental Sciences college of Agricultural, consumer & Environmental Sciences