

DATE:

investing in your financial health

Inventory of Accounts Exit Strategies - Planning For Life Changing Events

An inventory of accounts can be very helpful to family members. Too often assets go unclaimed because family members aren't aware of the accounts. Each of us has different kinds of assets.

Consider these asset	ts when making your own	list: cnecking, savings account	.s, certificate of leposits; 401(k)s or	other job pensions; IRAs; i	nvestments such as mutual fu	ınds, stocks, bonds fe insurance policie	es; annuities; safe deposit l	ooxes; real estate property, ar	nd other property.
Assets (What I Own)
Asset Type	Account Number	Financial Institution	Dollar
• •	and/or Password	(name and address)	Amount
ا list of liabilities is a	also helpful to family mem	bers trying to finalize an estat	e. Consider listing oans such as car, sto	udent, installment and mo	bers trying to finalize an estat rtgage loans as well as credit	•
oans such as car, sto	udent, installment and mo	,	•
oans such as car, sto	udent, installment and mo	rtgage loans as well as credit	cards.
oans such as car, sto	we) Account Number	rtgage loans as well as credit Financial Institution	Dollar
oans such as car, sto	we) Account Number	rtgage loans as well as credit Financial Institution	Dollar
oans such as car, sto	we) Account Number	rtgage loans as well as credit Financial Institution	Dollar
oans such as car, sto	we) Account Number	rtgage loans as well as credit Financial Institution	Dollar
oans such as car, sto	we) Account Number	rtgage loans as well as credit Financial Institution	Dollar
	we) Account Number	rtgage loans as well as credit Financial Institution	Dollar
oans such as car, sto	we) Account Number	rtgage loans as well as credit Financial Institution	Dollar

Written by Kathy Sweedler, Consumer Economics Educator, University of Illinois Extension, August 2012