

Jasper County 4-H FAQ sheet – Goats

General Information

Enrollment

- Enroll at il.4honline.com by March 15
- For more information about enrollment in the Jasper County 4-H program, please contact the Jasper County Extension office

Fair Entry

- Opens May 1
- Go to fairentree.com to register for specific classes
- If you are unsure if you will be showing, go ahead and register for the class—it is easier to scratch than add after the show starts
- All entries should be submitted by May 31

*General-project guidelines updated in March—4-H Handbooks can be viewed online at <https://extension.illinois.edu/cefj/4-h-jasper-county> under the Fairs and Shows tab.

Project Guidelines

Check guidelines for your project in the 4-H Handbook on the Jasper County 4-H website at <https://extension.illinois.edu/cefj/4-h-jasper-county> under the Fairs and Shows tab.

Ownership, and Tagging Deadlines

- All livestock and small animals must be owned by April 30
- Crossbred & Market animals must be tagged, and paperwork turned in to the Extension office by April 30
- A picture of the tag in the animal's ear must be submitted by April 30
- Every goat is required to have a Scrapie tag
- Goats born after the tagging date are not required to be tagged with a Jasper Co. tag (they must have a Scrapie tag)
- Animals exhibited at the Illinois State Fair have specific birth & ownership dates; you must follow guidelines listed under the Illinois State Fair Junior Show section of the 4-H Handbook

Birthdates

- Buck Kid – born after Jan. 1 of current year
- Jr Doe Kid – born after Jan. 1 of current year
- Sr Doe Kid – born July of previous year – Jan. of current year

Health Guidelines

- Go to the website provided in the back of the 4-H Handbook for a full list of requirements
- Scrapie tags may be ordered through the USDA-APHIS
- To request these official sheep and goat tags, a flock or premises ID or both, call 1-866-USDA-Tag (866-873-2824).

Certified Veterinarian Inspection (CVI)

- CVI's must be completed within 90 days of the 4-H Goat Show
- CVI papers must be kept at the fairgrounds in case of any questions

Records

- A livestock record must be up to date for each animal species and turned into the Extension office by the Friday before the Goat Show.
- Livestock records can be found online at <https://extension.illinois.edu/cefi/4-h-jasper-county> under the Fairs and Shows tab, or can be picked up at the Extension office

Registration papers

- Goats need not be registered
- Registration papers must be kept at the fairgrounds in case of any questions

YQCA

- Members enrolled in a Goat project must complete YQCA training every year
- This training can be completed online, or face-to-face trainings are offered in the spring

4-H Shows

- Animals must be on the fairgrounds by 8 a.m. Monday morning prior to the 4-H Goat Show
- The 4-H member must show his/her own animal (with the exception of the Master Showmanship contest, if the participant does not have a specie needed to show)
- Exhibitors are limited to 2 entries in each class
- NEW THIS YEAR* Pygmy goat classes will be offered for the 2022 4-H Goat Show

Auction – Sponsored and hosted by the Jasper County 4-H Auction Committee

- The 4-H member must be present to sell their animal and are encouraged to arrive at least 1 hour prior to the auction
- Only Market animals will be sold in the 4-H Auction
- There will be a $5 auction fee and a $5 waste disposal fee for Goat projects. This fee is to be paid when registering for the auction. Members who choose not to sell their animal will still be responsible for the waste removal fee.
- It is the obligation of the seller to deliver his or her market animal to the place specified by the owner
- Please refer to the 4-H Livestock Auction for a complete list of requirements and guidelines

For a complete list of guidelines and rules, please check the Jasper County 4-H Handbook

Helpful Hints to make your show year a success!

- Wear show-appropriate clothing
 - Close toed shoes, preferably boots
 - Long pants
 - Short or long-sleeved shirts
 - No attire promoting business, companies or farm names
- Practice, practice, practice!
 - Work with your animal from beginning of ownership to the show/auction
 - Do a mock show at home with the help of family or friends
- Study up!
 - Reference your 4-H project book
 - Go to Livestock clinics/workshops
 - Check out YouTube videos of other dairy goat & meat goat shows
- Smile 😊
 - While showing, animals may be difficult—it is a new environment for many animals
 - Try to keep a positive attitude and have fun
 - Keep a relaxed smile as much as possible
 - Make eye contact with the judge (but don't try to start a staring contest)
 - Whenever possible, leave several feet between you and the handler in front of you
 - Calm confidence will be part of your overall presentation
