

Jasper County 4-H FAQ sheet – Beef

General Information

Enrollment

- Enroll at 4h.zsuite.org by March 15
- For more information about enrollment in the Jasper County 4-H program, please contact the Jasper County Extension office

Fair Entry

- Opens May 1
- Go to fairentry.com to register for specific classes
- If you are unsure if you will be showing, go ahead and register for the class—it is easier to scratch than add after the show starts
- All entries should be submitted by May 15

*General-project guidelines updated in February—4-H Handbooks can be viewed online at <https://extension.illinois.edu/cefj/4-h-jasper-county> under the Fairs and Shows tab.

Project Guidelines

Check guidelines for your project in the 4-H Handbook on the Jasper County 4-H website at <https://extension.illinois.edu/cefj/4-h-jasper-county> under the Fairs and Shows tab.

Ownership, and Tagging Deadlines

- All livestock and small animals must be owned by April 30

Health Guidelines

- Go to the website provided in the back of the 4-H Handbook for a full list of requirements
- No steer can be shown that has not been dehorned or if any of its milk teeth are replaced by permanent teeth.

Certified Veterinarian Inspection (CVI)

- CVI's must be completed within 90 days of the 4-H Beef Show
- Illinois calves under 6 months of age, and Illinois steers are not required to have a CVI
- CVI papers must be presented during weigh-in and kept at the fairgrounds in case of any questions

Records

- A livestock record must be up to date for each animal species and turned into the Extension office or emailed to jaspercobeeff@gmail.com by June 10.
- 4-H members that are also FFA members may use their SAE record books in place of the 4-H Livestock Record
- Livestock records can be found online at <https://extension.illinois.edu/cefi/4-h-jasper-county> under the Fairs and Shows tab, or can be picked up at the Extension office

Registration papers

- Registration papers must be kept at the fairgrounds in case of any questions

YQCA

- Members enrolled in a Beef project must complete YQCA training every year
- This training can be completed online, or face-to-face trainings are offered in the spring

4-H Shows

- Animals must be on the fairgrounds by 8 a.m. Monday morning prior to the 4-H Beef Show
- The 4-H member must show his/her own animal (with the exception of the Master Showmanship contest, if the participant does not have a specie needed to show)
- 2 market animals may be shown regardless of weight

Auction – Sponsored and hosted by the Jasper County 4-H Auction Committee

- The 4-H member must be present to sell their animal and are encouraged to arrive at least 1 hour prior to the auction
- Only Market animals will be sold in the 4-H Auction
- There will be a $5 auction fee and a $10 waste disposal fee for Beef projects. This fee is to be paid when registering for the auction during weigh-in. Members who choose not to sell their animal will still be responsible for the waste removal fee.
- Steers must weigh at least 800 lbs. to sell and will only be paid for 1,400 lbs. maximum
- Feeder calves will be paid for 700 lbs. maximum
- Please refer to the 4-H Livestock Auction for a complete list of requirements and guidelines

For a complete list of guidelines and rules, please check the Jasper County 4-H Handbook

Helpful Hints to make your show year a success!

- Wear show-appropriate clothing
 - Close toed shoes, preferably boots
 - Long pants
 - Short or long-sleeved shirts
 - No attire promoting business, companies or farm names
- Practice, practice, practice!
 - Work with your animal from beginning of ownership to the show/auction
 - Do a mock show at home with the help of family or friends
- Study up!
 - Reference your 4-H project book
 - Go to Livestock clinics/workshops
 - Check out YouTube videos of other beef shows
- Smile 😊
 - While showing, animals may be difficult—it is a new environment for many animals
 - Try to keep a positive attitude and have fun
 - Keep a relaxed smile as much as possible
 - Make eye contact with the judge (but don't try to start a staring contest)
 - Whenever possible, leave several feet between you and the handler in front of you
 - Calm confidence will be part of your overall presentation
