

Jasper County 4-H FAQ sheet – Swine

General Information

Enrollment

- Enroll at 4h.zsuite.org by March 15
- For more information about enrollment in the Jasper County 4-H program, please contact the Jasper County Extension office

Fair Entry

- Opens May 1
- Go to faireentry.com to register for specific classes
- If you are unsure if you will be showing, go ahead and register for the class—it is easier to scratch than add after the show starts
- All entries should be submitted by May 15

*General-project guidelines updated in March—4-H Handbooks can be viewed online at <https://extension.illinois.edu/cefj/4-h-jasper-county> under the Fairs and Shows tab

Project Guidelines

Check guidelines for your project in the 4-H Handbook on the Jasper County 4-H website at <https://extension.illinois.edu/cefj/4-h-jasper-county> under the Fairs and Shows tab

Ownership and Tagging Deadlines

- All livestock and small animals must be owned by April 30
- Crossbred & Market animals must be tagged, and paperwork turned in to the Extension office by April 30
- A picture of the tag in the animal's ear must be submitted by April 30
- Animals exhibited at the Illinois State Fair have specific birth & ownership dates; you must follow guidelines listed under the Illinois State Fair Junior Show section of the 4-H Handbook
- Tagging forms and pictures may be brought into the office or e-mailed to jaspercswine@gmail.com

Birthdates

- All swine must be farrowed after December 1 of previous year

Exhibitors may bring up to and no more than 6 animals to exhibit in the Swine show. This includes purebred gilts, crossbred gilts, market gilts, purebred barrows, crossbred barrows and boars. This does not include Carcass animals.

Jasper County 4-H FAQ sheet – Swine

Health Guidelines

- Any animals having consumed Ractopamine (found in Paylean) anytime in their life will NOT be allowed to show at the Jasper County 4-H Swine Show.
- Go to the website provided in the back of the 4-H Handbook for a full list of requirements

Certified Veterinarian Inspection (CVI)

- CVI's must be completed within 90 days of the 4-H Swine Show
- CVI papers must be kept at the fairgrounds in case of any questions

Records

- A livestock record must be up to date for each animal species and turned into the Extension office or emailed to jaspercswine@gmail.com by June 10.
- 4-H members that are also FFA members may use their SAE record books in place of the 4-H Livestock Record
- Livestock records can be found online at <https://extension.illinois.edu/cefi/4-h-jasper-county> under the Fairs and Shows tab, or can be picked up at the Extension office

Registration papers

- All swine shown in the purebred classes must be purebred and registered, or application made on the animal in the 4-H member's name and dated before latest starting date for project
- A copy of the registration papers must be presented to the 4-H Superintendents during weigh-in
- Registration papers must be kept at the fairgrounds in case of any questions

YQCA

- Members enrolled in a Swine project must complete YQCA training every year
- This training can be completed online, or face-to-face trainings are offered in the spring

4-H Shows

- Animals must be on the fairgrounds by 8 a.m. Monday morning prior to the 4-H Shows
- The 4-H member must show his/her own animal (with the exception of the Master Showmanship contest, if the participant does not have a specie needed to show)
- Swine projects must have at least ½" of hair on side, top of body and hams to be allowed to show. Head, tail and undercarriage can be trimmed. Shaven pigs will not be allowed to show. Pigs can be clipped at a longer length or pigs clipped a month prior to the fair should have ½" of growth back on by fair time. We strongly encourage clipping be done prior to bringing animals to the fair.

Auction – Sponsored and hosted by the Jasper County 4-H Auction Committee

- The 4-H member must be present to sell their animal and are encouraged to arrive at least 1 hour prior to the auction
- Only Market animals will be sold in the 4-H Auction
- There will be a $5 auction fee and a $10 waste disposal fee for Swine projects. This fee is to be paid when registering for the auction during weigh-in. Members who choose not to sell their animal will still be responsible for the waste removal fee.
- It is the obligation of the seller to deliver his or her market animal to the place specified by the owner
- Please refer to the 4-H Livestock Auction for a complete list of requirements and guidelines

Helpful Hints to make your show year a success!

- Wear show-appropriate clothing
 - Close toed shoes, preferably boots
 - Long pants
 - Short or long-sleeved shirts
 - No attire promoting business, companies or farm names
- Practice, practice, practice!
 - Work with your animal from beginning of ownership to the show/auction
 - Do a mock show at home with the help of family or friends
- Study up!
 - Reference your 4-H project book
 - Go to Livestock clinics/workshops
 - Check out YouTube videos of other swine shows
- Smile 😊
 - While showing, animals may be difficult—it is a new environment for many animals
 - Try to keep a positive attitude and have fun
 - Keep a relaxed smile as much as possible
 - Make eye contact with the judge (but don't try to start a staring contest)
 - Whenever possible, leave several feet between you and the handler in front of you
 - Calm confidence will be part of your overall presentation
