

Clark County 4-H Leaders Meeting
June 18, 2019
7pm - Clark County Extension Office

President Aimee Janssen-Robinson called the meeting to order at 7pm.

Present were Cartha Gustafson, Aimee Janssen-Robinson, Tresa Morris, Jane Williams, Sara Hosfield, Janet Snow, Angela Zellers, Angela Wood, Teresa Winnett, Hillary Deckard, and Jeremy Deckard.

Old Business discussed included a BBQ Committee report regarding the new menu and ticket pricing. BBQ scheduling was discussed with Leaders being responsible for filling work times assigned to their Clubs, and advertising ideas were offered including possibly using bank and church signs in our communities to advertise the date and time of the BBQ.

Pre-sales and ticket distribution to 4-Hers were also discussed, including discontinuing to give General Project Judges with BBQ tickets, but continuing to offer Auctioneers tickets as well as continuing to offer the 1 ticket per 10 sold incentive to 4-Hers. Monetary 4-Her incentives were discussed and will continue unchanged.

New Business discussed included County events planned through 4-H Fair, the 4-H Fair theme/decorating and various supporting schedules during the Fair such as set-up, food/drink stands, General Projects open house, and take down schedule on Wednesday 7/24.

4-H Records and Awards were discussed, with records due to the Extension Office by our August meeting.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:00 p.m.
