

Illinois Extension
UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS URBANA-CHAMPAIGN

Contact: Kate Harding, Macoupin County 4-H Program Coordinator

Release Date: July 1, 2023

4-H Clothing & Textiles Show Held June 26

Macoupin County 4-H members displayed their sewing and purchasing skills at the annual 4-H Clothing Show. The Clothing Show was held at the Macoupin County Fairgrounds in Carlinville on Monday, June 26. Sharon Behme of Carlinville served as 4-H Clothing Show judge for this event.

4-H members had the choice of constructing a sewing project or purchasing a garment. 4-H members who participated in this show were: Saralynn Joiner and Katelyn Wiser of Carlinville; Hanley Stoecker of Gillespie; Bethany Cloninger of Plainview, Zorah Austin, Alexandria O'Shea and Audrey O'Shea of Virden; Abigail Mayfield of Livingston, and Alli Rhodes of Chesterfield.

Several top awards were given during this year's 4-H Clothing Show. Best of Show Top Construction and State Fair Delegates were award to Saralynn Joiner, Katelyn Wiser and Bethany Cloninger. State Fair Alternates selected for construction were Alli Rhodes, Zorah Austin, and Abigail Mayfield. Best of Show for Shopping in Style was Hanley Stoecker. State Fair Delegates were Hanley Stoecker and Alexandria O'Shea. State Fair Alternates for Shopping in Style were: Alli Rhodes and Audrey O'Shea.

The Cubby Hole, My Sister's Closet, and Mary Jane Thomas Family of Carlinville sponsored the Sewing Construction and Shopping in Style awards.

For more information on this event, or if you have a youth interested in 4-H, contact the University of Illinois Extension office at 217-854-9604.