Livestock Record Books

Don't forget to start keeping track of your livestock in your record book and turn those in by September 15th.

<https://go.illinois.edu/madisonlivestockshowbook>

Livestock Entry Forms

If you are showing livestock at the fair this year, make sure you fill out the entry forms and turn them in to me by June 1 so that I can register your projects into Fair Entry.

<https://go.illinois.edu/madison>

If you are enrolled in Dairy Cattle, Beef Cattle, Swine, Sheep, and/or Goats:

All 4-H exhibitors of these animals will be required to certify in the Youth for the Quality Care of Animals (YQCA) program.

You may complete this training online for $12 at <https://yqca.learn-grow.io/Account/Login>

We will schedule an in person training in April for only $3 so stay tuned.

If you are enrolled in Horses, Rabbits, Poultry, Dogs, and/or Cats:

The Quality Assurance and Ethics Certification is required for exhibitors of the above animals, even if you are only doing an animal science project. You only need to complete this training once in your lifetime!

This training is free and can be completed online at <https://web.extension.illinois.edu/qaec/>

Cultures & Continents Workshop on the Aboriginal people of Australia

The University of Illinois Extension hosted a workshop on the Aboriginal people of Australia. Those who registered received a copy of the Passport to the World project guide. They also learned all about the Aboriginal culture. The Australian people are famous for dot painting, so we created a dot painting on an easel. We also made Australian Lamington Cakes which were delicious!

4-H is a family affair for many! We want to encourage you, as a multi-generational 4-H family, to nominate your family for the Illinois 4-H Family Spirit Award.

Host an international youth this summer- Sign up soon as spots are limited

International students come to IL each summer and stay with a host family for about 4 weeks. Host a Japanese or South Korean youth this summer through States' 4-H International! Expand your family's cultural understanding, learn about new foods and customs, and possibly learn a new language, all while sharing your own. Your children will build lifelong friendships and will gain new perspectives on their own country, too! Families are needed for July 23 through August 18 (tentative dates). Applications are accepted until all placements are made. There is no cost for this program.

Students are matched with a host sibling by age gender and interests. So families hosting, must have a child between the ages of 12-18.

Host family selection is dependent on completion of an application and screening process, as well as student availability and personality compatibility.
