

Middle Rock Conservation Partners

The Middle Rock Conservation Partners (MRCP) is composed of a diverse group of people with a deep concern for the preservation and restoration of natural areas located in Lee and Ogle Counties, and beyond.

Volunteers dedicate their time and skills in helping to restore private and public lands. These activities include prescribed burns, removal of woody and other invasive species, and conducting vegetation surveys, all in an effort to return these lands to their pre-settlement state.

Left: Master Naturalist volunteers assist the Middle Rock Conservation Partners at a workday doing a prescribed burn a Franklin Grove preserve.

Right: Master Naturalist volunteers assist the Middle Rock Conservation Partners at a workday removing invasive plants at the Hill Preserve.