- An active 4-H member for the 2022-2023 4-H year in Sangamon County
- Evidence of acceptance to the institution of higher learning they will be attending (university, junior college, trade school)
- Studying an agriculture-related field
- High school graduate

Sangamon County 4-H Foundation Memorial Scholarships

The Sangamon County 4-H Memorial Scholarship Fund was established to provide a means of recognizing meritorious 4-H work and furthering the education of Sangamon County 4-H members. Multiple scholarships of varying amounts are available, depending on the member's years in 4-H. Scholarships will be awarded on the basis of: interest to pursue a higher education, 4-H background, scholastic record, leadership abilities, reference evaluations, and community involvement.

Criteria:

- Ten- or eleven-year member of which the final three years must have been as a Sangamon County 4-H member (Three scholarships available – one $1250 scholarship to a member who has participated in the livestock auction, one $1250 scholarship, and one $750 scholarship)
OR
Seven-, eight- or nine-year member of which the final three years must have been as a Sangamon County 4-H member (One $750 scholarship available)
- Evidence of acceptance to the institution of higher learning they will be attending (university, junior college, trade school)
- High school graduate
- Recipients from previous years are not eligible to apply again.

Applicants must submit only the following:

- One headshot photograph for publicity purposes – preferably a jpg file emailed to azepp2@illinois.edu; may include a 2" x 3" photograph with application if unable to email file
- Completed scholarship application form
- Official high school transcript, and copy of college transcript if attended college
- Copy of ACT and/or SAT tests scores, if taken
- Paper written by applicant on "How A Higher Education Will Benefit My Life"
- Three completed Reference Evaluations from:
 1. Your volunteer 4-H Leader
 2. Your school mentor (i.e. principal, advisor, teacher, administrator, coach, professor, counselor, superintendent)
 3. Other non-relative source of your choice

Three Reference Evaluation forms are provided with the application. They should be given in an envelope to the appropriate persons and returned directly to the applicant.

If possible, type answers to the questions on this form. Otherwise, print your answers in black ink. Write or type on only one side of each page. Use a type font no smaller than 10 characters per inch, a minimum of 1-inch margins on all edges, singled spaced. Stay within the space limits provided for each question on the application. No attachments will be accepted except those indicated above.

Applicants should submit all application documents in one envelope to: Sangamon County Extension Office, Attention Scholarship Committee, 700 S Airport Dr, Springfield, IL 62707. Documents can be mailed or hand delivered.

Scoring percentages used by the committee in selecting scholarship recipients will be:

50% - 4-H Involvement

25% - Scholarship

15% - Character and Citizenship

10% - School Leadership & Activities
