All Show information is available on our website Clinton County 4-H under Fairs at the bottom.

1. Review Showbook Rules/Guidelines and General Projects to determine what projects you would like to exhibit, you must be enrolled in 4-H online to exhibit the project.
   - Rules
   - Project Requirements

2. Review Tip Sheet, Exhibit Requirements, Project Report
   - Tip Sheet
   - Exhibit Requirements
   - Project Report
     Project Uploads Requirements – Choose 1
     - Photos a photo of the overall exhibit (required) and 2 photos that provide a close up of a skill, technique or content area that you would like to report
     - Microsoft PowerPoint or Google Slides (saved as a pdf) option is available as an alternative to creating a physical poster presentation. 10 slides. Slideshows of a maximum 20 slides are allowed for multi-year project binder/portfolio exhibits or large collection displays, including: My Financial Future: Adv., Entomology 3, RockHounds 1-2, Communications, Journalism, and Leadership 2-3.
     - Video Upload of 3 minutes ONLY allowed/required - robotics, computer science, video, and maker projects. Instructions on website.
     - Cloverbuds requirement – 1 picture and project report

3. Upload to Fair Entry , deadline to enter is June 19.

4. July 1 State Fair Delegates & Champions Announced

5. Any member that is enrolled and paid their county enrollment fee is eligible to show, the previous requirement to attend 4 events has been waived for this year.

6. Classes that state activities from the book are no longer required due to a virtual show. members are only required to upload the elements listed in the Virtual 2020 Fair Entry Exhibit Requirements for a judge to review.Please continue to use this show book as a starting place but refer to the Virtual Exhibit Requirementspreadsheet for guidance on the new exhibit requirements.