

5. There are many opportunities for volunteering in the Master Gardener program.

Check any of the following activities that may interest you:

- Help at VCMG community gardens. There are many projects.
- Grow vegetables at home for local food pantries and senior citizens.
- Assist with annual fundraisers like March Garden Day, May Plant Sale
- Help with youth garden projects at Danville Library Children's Garden
- Help choose educational program topics and find speakers for MG programs
- Volunteer at VA Greenhouse: plant, water, propagate plants etc.
- Volunteer with veterans, help out at VA Greenhouse
- Be a presenter at garden themed programs for community organizations
- Participate in weekly WDAN radio program
- Volunteer at Danville Library Native Plant Garden
- CocoRaHS Citizen Scientist project monitor precipitation at your home
- Assist with MG Training- show garden projects, mentor
- Other _____

Incoming Vermilion County Master Gardener Interns design, plant and care for 3 large pots and 2 raised planters at Extension Office in Danville each year as a team. They work together on this project as part of their internship for one season. Are you willing to take part in this project? Volunteers do not fund the project.

Yes No

6. Will you need Need Based Financial Assistance?

Yes No

7. Are you employed?

Yes Full time Part time

No

8. How did you learn about the Master Gardener Program?

9. If you plan to become a Master Gardener and you complete the training, do you agree to continue your education and complete 40 hours of volunteer time at approved University of Illinois Extension projects within 2 years following training?

Yes No

Signature _____

Date _____

Return application to the University of IL Vermilion County Extension office:

Jenney Hanrahan Master Gardener Coordinator
3164 North Vermilion Danville, IL 61832
PHONE: 217-442-8615
jhanraha@illinois.edu