4-H Digital Ambassador Program

Jan/Feb/March Series

Whiteside County Farm Bureau
100 E Knox St, Morrison
8:00-9:30 am

January 4 – Keyboarding & Computer Basics
January 25 – Browsing the Web
February 8– Email Basics
February 22 - Understanding Computer Files
March 7 – Social Media & Video Chat
March 21 – Online Banking & More

This partnership elevates teens as teachers to provide training and communication to assist adults in their community with increasing their comfort level in utilizing new technology.

- Adults of all ages
- No Cost
- Sign up for one or more programs
- Bring your device for help
- laptops available at each session
- Space limited

4-H GROWS HERE

Microsoft

Registration Required

Online: go.illinois.edu/Whiteside4HDigital
Phone: 815-632-3611

For more information contact
Allie Johnston
Whiteside County Extension Office
815-632-3611
lancast@illinois.edu

I ILLINOIS EXTENSION

Session Descriptions

January 4

Keyboarding & Computer Basics

Getting to know the system: How to effectively use your computer.

January 25

Browsing The Web

Searching like a Pro: How to effectively search the internet.

February 8

Email Basics

Communicating in writing: How to effectively send & receive emails.

February 22

Understanding Computer Files

Finding where it went: How to effectively save, organize and manage files.

March 7

Social Media Basics and Video Chat

Connecting beyond your home: How to effectively use social media and interactive tool/apps.

March 21

Online Banking & More

Making The Switch: How to Access and Use Digital Records for Medical Care, Banking & Beyond

Note: Teens will be available for a short time after lessons to answer questions. Teens are not experts in technology, but will do their best to answer questions. You are welcome to challenge their knowledge!