#Opportunity4All

Good afternoon 4-H Families,

I hope all of you are doing well and getting back into the swing of things with schools back in session and the end of fair season. What a great fair we had this year! The smiles were wonderful and lots of ribbons and awards are being given. Please be sure to remember to write thank you notes to your trophy sponsors! If you misplaced your card & envelope, send me an email and I can look it up for you if you let me know the project area. This is the LAST CALL for any choice awards— after Monday, it's too late!

I am working on compiling all the champions and reserve champions and hope to have that information released to you all soon!

Local and State 4-H Awards are around the corner! Be sure to read through this Newsflash as I have all the links attached you should need to get started on applications. Deadline is October 7 for all individual award applications to our Winnebago County Extension Office. Club award applications for the state club award are due at our leaders meeting later this month. I do not have any award banquet information to offer at this time.

WE WILL BE CLOSED ON LABOR DAY

Enjoy the long weekend with family!

Also, please be looking for a special delivery in your mailbox with a small token to celebrate our 4-H community.

We were excited to see so many of you at State Fair this year, and we know that 4-H youth are excited to see each other again. We are, too!

This year, we'll have a continued focus on keeping our youth, families, and volunteers safe during 4-H experiences. As such, anyone attending a 4-H indoor meeting or event must wear face coverings (that cover the nose and mouth) regardless of vaccination status, except for when eating and drinking. At outdoor meetings and events, face coverings will be encouraged, and attendees must wear face coverings when social distancing is not possible. In addition, social distancing of at least 6 feet between attendees from different households must be followed. Additional cleaning and sanitizing procedures will also be in place. If anyone attending has a medical exception to face coverings, we encourage you to reach out to your local Extension staff for help in providing an accommodation. As always, we will continue to monitor and follow IDPH, CDC, and University guidelines and will keep you updated of any changes.

We continue to be humbled by the care you have taken to keep each other safe. Thank you for all you have done and continue to do and we are looking forward to a great year!

Sincerely,

Lisa Diaz

WHAT'S HAPPENING AT THE EXTENSION:

Soil, Climate, and Carbon

September 9, 2021 | 1 PM

Carbon storage is a hot topic these days. Some soils contain huge amounts of carbon, mostly in the form of organic matter. Soils also have the ability to store additional amounts of carbon quickly, but can just as easily lose it. Join us to learn about why Midwest soils contain large amounts of organic matter, changes that have occurred over the last 150 years, and ways that carbon, in the form of organic matter, can be increased in these soils. Presenter: Duane Friend

If you need a reasonable accommodation to participate in any of these programs, please contact the presenter at the link provided. Early requests are strongly encouraged to allow sufficient time for meeting your access needs.

As your vegetable garden begins to wind down for the season, you might be thinking about what tasks you should or could be doing to ensure that next year is ready for growing. The tasks will include planting garlic and cover crops, overwintering perennial vegetables, getting a soil test, orchard management, and many others. For more information and registration, visit us at go.illinois.edu/jsw.

Fill Your Pantry Home Webinar Series

September 30, 2021

Rest easy knowing you have weeks of food available for your family in your home pantry. Learn safe and easy ways to preserve foods through a series of webinars by University of Illinois Extension. Extension Nutrition and Wellness Educators will discuss the latest techniques for canning, freezing, dehydrating, and fermenting a variety of foods safely at home.

Following these simple food preservation steps and you'll be filling your pantry shelves with food you know is safe and healthy for your family.

Canning Foods (Recording) (Handouts)

What is the difference between pressure canning and water bath canning? What equipment do I need? What recipes are safe to use? This webinar answers these questions, along with up-to-date information on canning. Whether you are new to canning or have been doing it for years and want a refresher, all are welcome to join!

Freezing Foods (Recording) (Handouts)

Freezing foods at home is simple and require equipment you likely already have in your kitchen. For the best quality frozen fruits and vegetables, it is not enough to simply add foods to your freezer. In this webinar, learn which foods do freeze well, why blanching improves frozen food quality, the process of freezing at home, and more.

Fermenting Foods (Recording) (Handouts) (Recipes)

Fermentation is growing in popularity as a way to create foods and drinks with probiotic properties for healthy gut microbes and as a method of home food preservation. In this webinar, learn the fundamentals and benefits of Lacto-fermentation; learn how to safely ferment at home, and gain the confidence to get started right away! Fermentation is an easy and economical way to preserve your food with added health benefits.

Drying Foods (Recording) (Handouts) (Frequently Asked Questions)

Dried foods make tasty, compact snacks. From jerky to dried fruit, dehydrating at home is easy to do. In this webinar, learn about up-to-date drying methods and equipment, ways to test for sufficient drying, and ways to use dried foods in recipes.

Fill Your Pantry Home Webinar Series Continued

Making Jams & Jellies (Recording) (Handouts)

Make a sweet spread, such as jams and jellies, at home with your favorite berries and other fruits. Though sweet spreads are a popular home canned item, it is important to follow up-to-date canning processes and use appropriate equipment. Join in this webinar to learn step-by-step how to can jams and jellies at home, as well as troubleshooting challenges that may arise, such as unset jellies.

Pickling Foods (Recording) (Handouts)

Pickling is an ancient form of food preservation that involves the process of preserving or extending the shelf life of food by either anaerobic fermentation in brine or immersion in vinegar. Join us as we share information on basic pickling methods using the latest scientific methods to ensure food safety.

Preserving Apples (Recording) (Handouts)

Apples are ripening in Illinois orchards. Learn about the varieties of apples along with preservation methods. We will discuss juicing, freezing, canning, and dehydrating apples. All this information will include the most current science-based preservation methods and highlight food safety. Join us and learn to preserve this delicious seasonal fruit with confidence.

Processing Tomatoes (Recording) (Handouts)

Do you expect an abundance of tomatoes in your garden, but you aren't sure what to do with them? Whether canning, freezing or drying, it's important to follow up-to-date methods. You'll learn all about canning salsa, the variety of ways to water bath or pressure can tomatoes, dehydrating this luscious fruit, and how to freeze for best results!

FOUR SEASONS GARDENING

Webinar Series

Garden Tool Maintenance |

September 14

1:30 p.m.

Make gardening less of a chore by maintaining your equipment. Sharp, rust-free tools are easier on the body and make whatever task is at hand quicker to finish. Horticulture Educator Richard Hentschel will cover care for hand tools and small engine equipment commonly used in the garden and home landscape.

WHAT'S HAPPENING AT THE EXTENSION:

Certified Food Protection Manager Course

The University of Illinois Extension will offer the Certified Food Protection Manager Course, formally known as the Food Service Sanitation Manager Course (FSSMC). This two-part class is an American National Standards Institute (ANSI) accredited course, which meets the Illinois Department of Public Health's Food Service Sanitation Code requirements.

During this two-day class, participants will gain knowledge about principles and recommendations of the FDA Food Code focused on food safety and contamination, employee health and hygiene, safe food handling practices, cleaning and sanitizing, and HACCP.

Participants should bring a valid photo ID and arrive 15 minutes early to register, as class will begin promptly at the designated time stated.

Participants must attend the full two-day training to be eligible to take the exam.

There is a $100.00 program fee to cover this educational session. This fee is for the purchase of the book, educational materials, examination, and lunch. Space is limited, and therefore, preregistration is required.

If you need a reasonable accommodation to participate in this program, please contact our office at (815) 235-4125 at least 30 days before the program.

The class will be offered in September, October and November at various locations so you can choose the location that works best for you. To register, please choose the date below that you would like to attend.

Tuesday, September 14 & Friday September 17, 2021 in Elizabeth, IL

10 Basic Embroidery Stitches

taught by Cathy Grafton • Pontiac, IL

October 16, 2021 • 2-5 PM

Macktown Living History • 2221 Freeport Rd., Rockton, IL

Learn a bit of embroidery history and 10 basic stitches that you can use when doing hand work. You will create a small sampler of stitches, which you can then use for reference in your own work. I will bring my own collection of small samplers and examples of hand stitching. These stitches are the basis of much of the embroidery done throughout history around the world. Whether you are creating your own designs, using hand stitching for clothing or adding details to quilts, this workshop will give you a solid understanding of each stitch.

The stitches we will cover are: running, back stitch, cross stitch, split stitch, stem & outline stitch, French knots, chain stitch, detached chain (lazy daisy), feather stitch and variations and couching – featuring the Bayeux stitch'

Materials: A piece of solid cotton to work on, a 4-6 inch embroidery hoop, small scissors, sewing notions (thimble, pincushion, etc.) several embroidery needles and wool or silk twist weight threads. (note if requested ahead of time I can bring the needles and various threads to stitch with.) Please contact event coordinator with questions

Workshop cost is:

$35.00/person for non-members, $30.00/person for members
