

Youth and Adult Educational Outreach Programs

Many groups call in requests for presentations on various horticultural topics. Master Gardeners have given talks at both the Princeton and the Wyandot Public Libraries on such topics as pollinators, introduction to the Master Gardener Program, backyard birding, easy care native plants, and preparing your garden for the fall.

Master Gardener Mary May gives a presentation on pollinators at the Princeton Public Library in June, 2019.